

Could you volunteer and become a School Governor?

Being a governor is a rewarding way of making a voluntary contribution to the lives of local young people. Parkfields School is always interested to hear from prospective new governors to join our team.

We would be delighted to hear from anyone who has:

- An interest in the performance of the school
- An open and enquiring mind and the ability to look at issues objectively.
- The confidence to ask questions and join in debate.
- A willingness to listen and make informed judgements
- The ability to work well with others
- Some time to spare (6 meetings per academic year usually held at 4:30pm midweek)
- Some ad hoc smaller panel meetings
- Ability to be a 'critical friend' and support the school collaboratively between meetings

Being a governor can be enjoyable, stimulating and rewarding and you do not have to be the parent of a child at school. All governors must complete safeguarding checks.
